DRUG PARTY: Lounge scene

Music in background, people talking.
Roll over girl standing near stereo

Boy: "He Claire! You don't look so good."
Girl3: "I'm feeling very dizzy. I shouldn't have drunk so much."

Girl collapses on floor. Girls attend to the girl.

Remember your ABC (Airway, breathing and circulation)

1... Firstly check their airway is clear

2... Place them in the recovery position. Move their left arm across the chest and raise the left leg.

3... Roll them slowly over, supporting the head. Place the left hand under the mouth to raise their head slightly. Check they are still able to breathe.

4... Call for an ambulance or get someone else to call.

Girl1: "I'll call for an ambulance"

Girl2: "I'll take care of her."

Dial 999 on mobile

Operator: "Emergency services, how can I assist you?"

Girl: "Somebody has collapsed, I think she has taken some pills and drunk too much alcohol. She is breathing but unconscious"

Operator: "Make sure she is lying on her side and that her mouth and airway is clear."

Girl: "Yes my friend has attended to her."

Operator: "OK please give your name and address and phone number."

Girl: "My name is Sharon, I'm at number 24, Park Lane. The phone number is 01234 567890."

Operator: "OK sharon an ambulance is on its way to you. Please look after the casualty and wait for the ambulance."

...5 minutes later. Ambulance arrives, paramedics walk inside.

Paramedics attend to the girl. "She has alcohol poisoning and possibly taken some illegal drugs. We'd better take her to hospital immediately." Paramedics take girl on stretcher into ambulance. Drive off.

Key messages

- If anybody you offers you some pills, never take them. You don't know what they are or how they will affect you.
- Smoking is addictive and can seriously damage your lungs.
- There are over 4000 chemicals in each cigarette.
- Don't drink too much alcohol, especially 'binge' drinking. Alcohol is a poison and too much could kill you.
